Imagine...

... making music alongside someone other than your classmate at school-maybe your teacher, or your mom, or a professional orchestra player.

This is the unique proposition of the Five Seasons Chamber Music Festival. Since 2003 the festival has brought together musicians of all ages and levels of study to Seasons. play chamber music ranging in scope from duets to string orchestras, and in time from Haydn and Mozart to living American composers.

I'm now at a much longer and more "competitive" festival, and my chamber groups (or coaches) do not match the level at Five -Festival participant Please join us for the Five Seasons Chamber Music Festival Our Tenth

June 11-16, 2012 Hosted by Washington High School Cedar Rapids, Iowa

Faculty from the Metropolitan Opera Orchestra of New York:

- David Krauss. principal trumpet
- Javier Gándara, horn
- Denson Paul Pollard, . trombone/bass trombone

Saturday, June 9

- 10-11 a.m. Master class
 - 11-12 Ensemble reading session
- 12-2 p.m. Lunch
- 2-4 p.m. Ensemble rehearsal and reading session
- 7 p.m. Faculty recital

Sunday, June 10

- 12-2 p.m. Dress rehearsal
 - 3 p.m. Participant concert

Tuition

$50 for both days. •

Five Seasons Chamber Music Festival

Five Seasons Chamber Music Festival participants play in orchestras and ensembles for a week of musical growth and adventure culminating in three gala concerts.

Chamber Ensembles

Everything was so thoughtfully planned and very well organized. The faculty participants were tremendous.

-Parent of festival participant

- String/piano
- Harp
- Flute
 - ite
- Brass

Daily Activities 10 a.m. to 4 p.m.

- Morning warm-ups and stretches
- Small ensemble rehearsals
- Lunchtime faculty concerts
- Afternoon orchestra rehearsals

for students and faculty

Free Concerts

Friday, June 15

- 5 p.m.—Harps and flutes
- 7 p.m.—Strings, piano and brass

Saturday, June 16

 7 p.m.—faculty ensembles and festival orchestra

Faculty

 Professional musicians from across the United States and Europe provide a stimulating and creative learning and performance environment.

Orchestra conductors

• Eric McIntyre, Grinnell College faculty; music director, Central Iowa Symphony

Our faculty list will grow throughout the spring. For the complete list visit our Facebook page. Like us on Facebook to get updates as we make them.

Tuition

$180 for the week. Some scholarship aid available.

Join us for the tenth annual

Five Seasons Chamber Music Festival.

June 11-16, 2012

Hosted by Washington High School, Cedar Rapids, Iowa

Questions? Call Stephanie Wagor, 319-365-1510, or email fiveseasonschambermusic@gmail.com.

Feel free to copy and share this information, or download from the link on our Facebook page.

Registration Five Seasons Chamber Music Festival Due May 1, 2012

Name exactly as it should appear in the	e printed program
First name as it should appear on your	name tag
Address
Phone
email
Private instructor
nstrument	Age Number of years playing
School (if applicable)
Special musical interests
May we include your name	in a release to your local news media?	1
Choose one or both:
Brass Workshop, Jun	ne 9-10 $50
Main festival, June 11-
	-10, $100
Detach and mail this t	form and your tuition to:
Five Seasons Chamber	r Music Festival
c/o Stephanie Wagor
3750 Cottage Grove Aven	ue SE
Cedar Rapids, IA 52403
AND email
	e of 5 minutes or less
 An MP3 audition file 	e of 5 minutes or less Idation from your teacher

All auditions must be submitted electronically (except by special arrangement).

All application materials (registration form, audition file, letter of recommendation, and tuition) must be received before application can be considered.